

Elizaveta Senggen

Associate

✉ elizaveta.senggen@idest.pro

 LinkedIn

☎ +41 21 321 0880

📍 Rue Pichard 22, CH-1003 Lausanne

Elizaveta Senggen advises and represents private and public-sector clients on technology law, data protection and intellectual property. Her professional background in Switzerland and Russia encompasses roles as a barrister, in-house legal counsel, and experience within a public sector organisation.

Admission — Admitted to practice before all Swiss courts

Languages — French, English, Russian

BACKGROUND

Experience & career

- 2026–
Associate, id est avocats Sàrl
- 2022–24
Trainee Lawyer, Kasser Schlosser avocats SA, Lausanne
- 2019–21
Legal Counsel and ad hoc DPO, HES-SO//FR
- 2012–19
Legal Counsel, MCE Avocats, Fribourg/Lausanne, then SwissLegal Rouiller & Associés SA, Lausanne
- 2011–12
Legal Counsel and short film shooting assistant, Shatters Ltd., Moscow (Russia)
- 2010–11
Senior in-house Counsel, New Project Ltd., Moscow (Russia)
- 2008–10
Legal Counsel, Omega Ltd. (IP and media law firm), Moscow (Russia)

CREDENTIALS

Education

- 2025
Swiss attorney-at-law diploma
- 2012–17
BLaw and MLaw in Swiss law, University of Fribourg, with additional mention in European law (cum laude)
- 2005–10
Licence in Russian law, Moscow State Law University, specialisation in Private International Law (summa cum laude); diploma as a professional legal translator-interpreter (English, Spanish)

NETWORKS

Memberships & mandates

- Member, Swiss Bar Association (FSA), since 2026
- Member, Vaud Bar Association (OAV), 2022–24 and since 2026
- Member, Swiss Data Protection Officers Association (ASDPO), since 2026

Research & perspective

Co-author of the Russian law compendium “Standard Contracts for the Use of Copyright and Related Rights Works”, Norma, Moscow (Russia), 2010.